

1 RF Credit – Eighth Line Summer Newsletter 2011

- 1) What are the tools of an ethical and competent professional?
 - a. A lensometer and pupilometer
 - b. Standards of Practice and Bylaws
 - c. Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice
 - d. Standards and Code of Conduct

- 2) Why go to school to be trained and certified as an Optician?
 - a. For higher wages
 - b. Because it's easier than other careers
 - c. To be able to tell others you are educated
 - d. To set the bar against which others are measured

- 3) Who is important to the success of professional regulation?
 - a. The College
 - b. The Association
 - c. The Educators
 - d. The Consumer
 - e. The Professional
 - f. All of the above

- 4) What is a more proactive role to protect the public that a College can undertake?
 - a. Educate the public
 - b. Search for members that are not following the rules
 - c. Practice audits
 - d. Take members straight to disciplines

- 5) What has been developed to fill the gap and give the consumer access to information about who is qualified and what it means to be qualified as an Optician?
 - a. The Register
 - b. The Licensed Optician Campaign
 - c. The Standards of Practice
 - d. Vision Magazine

- 6) What is the goal of the Licensed Optician campaign?
 - a. Educate the public
 - b. Prove that Opticians are the best
 - c. Make Opticians famous
 - d. Encourage Opticians to act professional

- 7) What was the license renewal rate in BC?
- a. 105%
 - b. 100%
 - c. 95%
 - d. 50%
- 8) What group of retired members are eligible for discounted rates if they choose to return to practice?
- a. All members who claim retired status
 - b. Those over 50
 - c. Those over 65
 - d. Those who are non-practicing
- 9) The Registration Committee will review on an individual basis all members who have been out of practice for more than how many years?
- a. One year
 - b. Two years
 - c. Three years
 - d. More than five years